

HILLARY CLINTON SUPPORTERS FILE MORE COURT DOCUMENTS TO STOP VOTING BY CULINARY WORKERS

Hillary Clinton's supporters went to court again to stop working people from voting on Saturday at their casinos. They filed more court documents with the United States District Court.

Has Hillary Clinton condemned the attack on our right to vote? First she said "I just don't know" whether casino workers should get to vote on Saturday.

Now the Hillary Clinton campaign is defending the lawsuit, saying there shouldn't be voting sites for casino workers.

A real leader fights for us, and stands up for our right to vote.

Senator Barack Obama is defending our right to vote. As a civil rights lawyer, he fought for voting rights. As an organizer, he registered workers to vote.

What the News is Saying

"Clinton defends Nevada caucus site lawsuit."

 Associated Press

"Some are calling [the lawsuit] dirty politics"

"The lawsuit...is a hardball effort by Clinton allies to block votes from the 60,000-member Culinary Union"

"top officials backing Mrs. Clinton [are] suing to block the creation of several at-large precincts in some Las Vegas Resorts. But without those special precincts, many members of the culinary workers union...would not be able to get out of vote to work"
