REVIEW-JOURNAL

Democrats have put up two candidates who are not exactly ready for prime time. Even months after declaring their candidacies, Shirley Breeden and Allison Copenig are no closer to talking about issues, let alone understanding them.

Erin Neff, Las Vegas Review Journal, September 14, 2008

LAS VEGAS SUN

Much more disturbing is that these candidates [Breeden and Copenig] are thoroughly unprepared for the offices they are seeking.

Las Vegas Sun August 20, 2008

LAS VEGAS SUN

If vacuousness were an Olympic sport, we'd have had a couple of gold medal performances from Copenig and Breeden during the Congregation Ner Tamid-sponsored debates.

Las Vegas Sun, August 20, 2008

LAS VEGAS SUN

Copenig, a public relations pro, consistently offered the kind of rhetorical mush that so many in her profession provide for clients — she said a lot but said nothing

Las Vegas Sun, August 20, 2008

Las Vegas Gleaner

[Copenig has] a tendency so far in her young political career to sound like an airhead

Las Vegas Gleaner, August 19, 2008

LAS VEGAS CITY LIFE

Democratic state Senate challengers Shirley Breeden and Allison Copenig turned in two of the worst performances we've ever seen in covering politics.

Sadly, their opponents were pretty much right on the money

Steve Sebelius, Las Vegas CityLife Blogs, August 18, 2008

With our economic problems, Nevada Can't Afford to buy training wheels for Allison Copenig.
