Re: Candidate Jennifer L. Taylor

To Whom it May Concern:

I am writing with regard to a story which ran in the Review Journal this morning, March 25, 2009, regarding candidate Jennifer L. Taylor. I was quoted in the piece based on a voice mail message I left with the reporter, after I returned his call yesterday. I did leave a substantive message with the reporter, and also left him my direct dial number, and anticipated a return call. I was surprised and a bit dismayed, therefore, to see that I had been quoted in the article based only on my voice mail message. Therefore, I would like at this time to clarify the facts related to the employment of Candidate Jennifer L. Taylor with my former law firm.

Candidate Jennifer L. Taylor and Jennifer N. Taylor never worked at my prior law firm at the same time. Jennifer L. Taylor left the firm in October of 1997, three years before the Ryan v. State Farm Fire & Casualty Co., litigation was even filed. Therefore, Jennifer L. Taylor never worked on the Ryan case. Any suggestion to the contrary in my voice mail message was incorrect.

Please do not hesitate to contact me should you wish further clarification.

Sincerely,

V. Andrew Cass of
