ARBITRATION EXEMPT

INJUNCTIVE RELIEF REQUESTED

COMPLAINT FOR INJUNCTIVE RELIEF, DECLARATORY RELIEF AND DAMAGES

Plaintiffs allege as follows:

THE PARTIES

1. Plaintiff PHILLIP DENNIS IVEY, JR., hereinafter referred to as "Phil Ivey" or "Plaintiff" is and was at all times relevant a resident of Las Vegas, State of Nevada;
2. Tiltware, LLC, is and at all relevant times was a Limited Liability Company formed in the State of California;
3. That the true names, identities or capacities, whether individual, corporate, associate

1 or otherwise of the Defendants DOES I through X, and ROES I through X, are
2 unknown to Plaintiff, who therefore sues said Defendants by such fictitious names.
3 Plaintiff is informed and does believe, and thereupon alleges, that each of the 4 Defendants designated herein as DOE and/or ROE are responsible in some manner
5 for the events and happenings herein referred to; that Plaintiffs will ask leave of this
6 Court to amend this Complaint to insert the true names and capacities of said
7 Defendants DOES I through X and/or ROES I through X when same have been
8 ascertained by Plaintiffs, together with appropriate charging allegations, and to join
9 Defendants in this action;

- 10
11 4. That at all times herein mentioned, Defendants, DOES I through X, and/or ROE
12 CORPORATIONS I through X, inclusive, were the agents, partners, servants,
13 employees, contractors, and investors of Defendants, and each of them were acting
14 within the course and scope of their agency, employment, contract or investor
15 relationship;

16 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

- 17 5. This Court has jurisdiction in this matter in that the causes of action arising herein
18 and the harm to Plaintiff has and will continue to occur within the State of Nevada,
19 County of Clark, and the amount in controversy is in excess of $10,000.00;

20 FACTS COMMON TO ALL CLAIMS

- 21 6. The game poker has existed for hundreds of years. In the last decade the popularity
22 of poker has spiked to the extent that almost every major casino has opened poker 23 rooms, there have been movies produced regarding the game, and there have been 24 numerous television productions of poker tournaments;
- 25 7. As a result of the increase in popularity of poker, the great poker players have 26 become celebrity figures, appearing regularly on television productions of poker
27 tournaments. The celebrity status attributed to these poker players is akin to the 28

- 1 celebrity status of professional athletes who receive endorsements as a result of their
2 popularity in their respective professions;
3
4 8. Phil Ivey is a professional poker player, he has won Eight World Series of Poker
5 bracelets, and is regarded as the best poker player in the world;
6
7 9. Phil Ivey is highly regarded in his profession and is highly recognized publicly as a
8 result of his professional success;
9
10 10. Plaintiff entered into an agreement with Defendant in or around February of 2004, 11 whereby Defendant would provide software and related support for the conduct of 12 legal online poker and Plaintiff would endorse said product with his name and 13 likeness. On information and belief the software was then provided by Defendant to 14 Full Tilt Poker;
15
16 11. As a result of the agreement reached between Plaintiff and Defendant, Plaintiff
17 became widely recognized as being associated with Defendant, with Defendant's
18 product, and with Full Tilt Poker;
19
20 12. The Agreement entered into between Plaintiff and Defendant contained a section
21 entitled "Non-Competition Covenant" which Defendant now asserts prevents 22 Plaintiff from engaging or investing in, individually or with others, any activity that 23 is in direct or indirect competition with Defendant;
24
25 13. Defendant asserts that for the entire existence of the Company, Plaintiff is prevented
26 from owning, acquiring, assuming or participating in any investment or interest that 27 is adverse or otherwise in conflict with the Defendant's business or prospects, 28 financial or otherwise, without prior written consent of the Board of the Defendant, which consent may be withheld in the Boards' sole and absolute discretion;
14. As a result of conduct described below, Plaintiff has requested that he be relieved from the Non-Competition Covenant, and Defendant has denied said request;
15. On or about April 15, 2011, the United States Attorney for the Southern District of New York disclosed that an Indictment had been issued against certain individuals involved with Full Tilt Poker;

16. The Indictment alleges that “Principals of the Poker Companies...deceived or directed others to deceive United States banks and financial institutions into processing billions of dollars in payments for the Poker Companies, by, among other things, arranging for the money received from United States gamblers to be disguised as payments to hundreds of non-existent online merchants and other non-gambling businesses”;
17. The Indictment further alleges that Full Tilt Poker “used fraudulent methods to avoid these (banking) restrictions”;
18. The Indictment contains a Forfeiture Allegation in the amount of at least $1 billion U.S. currency as it relates to Count Six of the Indictment and Full Tilt Poker;
19. As a result of the Indictment, poker players that had money on deposit with Full Tilt Poker publicly made demand for return of their funds;
20. On or about April 20, 2011, the United States Attorney for the Southern District of New York issued a press release that outlined that they expect Full Tilt Poker to return the money that “U.S. players entrusted to them”, and that they will work with the poker companies to facilitate the return of funds to players. The press release further outlined that the government would allow for Full Tilt Poker to use the fulltiltpoker.com domain name to facilitate the withdrawal of U.S. player’s funds held in account with Full Tilt Poker;
21. The Press Release further stated that the Defendants named in the Indictment had been provided “repeated warnings and clear notice that their conduct was illegal in the United States”;
22. Nobody from the Defendant entity or Full Tilt Poker advised the Plaintiff of the “repeated warnings” or “clear notice” that had been provided to them;
23. Nobody from the Defendant entity or Full Tilt Poker advised the Plaintiff that Full Tilt Poker was allegedly using “fraudulent methods” to avoid banking restrictions;
24. Notwithstanding that the United States Attorney for the Southern District of New York’s press release indicates that they have advised Full Tilt Poker that it expects

- 1 the player's funds to be returned, Full Tilt Poker has not returned said funds;
2
3 25. On information and belief there is approximately $150,000,000 owed to U.S.
4 players by Full Tilt Poker;
5
6 26. On information and belief, and unbeknown to Plaintiff, Full Tilt Poker failed to 7 maintain a reserve account sufficient to satisfy the return of funds to U.S. players;
8
9 27. The above described conduct is a breach of the agreement entered into between 10 Plaintiff and Defendant whereby Defendant would "provide software and related 11 support for the conduct of legal online poker". This breach by Defendant relieves
12 the Plaintiff of the Non-Competition Covenants;
13
14 28. As a result of Plaintiff's name and likeness being associated with and endorsing
15 Defendant pursuant to their agreement, and as a result of Plaintiff being recognized
16 as one of the faces of Full Tilt Poker, along with the above described conduct of 17 Defendant and Full Tilt Poker in failing to return player's funds to the players and 18 failing to maintain adequate reserve accounts, Plaintiff's reputation and professional 19 reputation have been irreparably damaged;
20
21 29. U.S. players that have demanded return of their funds from Full Tilt Poker made 22 public statements against Phil Ivey, under the mistaken belief that Phil Ivey has the 23 ability to cause Full Tilt Poker to return the player's funds;
24
25 30. As recent at May 30, 2011, public comments related to Full Tilt Poker's failure to 26 return U.S. player's funds have included, but are not limited to "I hope any 27 sponsored pro at the WSOP catches hell until you (Full Tilt Poker) pay up", "No
28 F'ing way Ivey...will be seen at the WSOP", "Plz tell me that no full tilt pros are going to play in the WSOP until you guys pay out", "The fact that they need to "raise capital in order to payout the US players" means they never had all the money on them in the first place. Scary". Additionally, people are demanding that Plaintiff pay the owed player's funds personally;
As a result of the conduct of Defendant as described herein, Plaintiff has suffered public ridicule, humiliation, and loss of personal and professional reputation;
