Re: Civil Rights for Seniors v. AOC
First Judicial District Court Case CV11-002248

Dear Mr. Olsen:

Please find enclosed a supplement 16.1 disclosure, which is a breakdown of the costs that will be incurred by the Administrative Office of the Courts to redact and copy the requested documents in the above matter. These costs are for in-house redacting and copying, and AOC has yet to obtain an estimate from an outside company.

Pursuant to NRS 239.055(1), AOC is entitled to charge a fee for extraordinary use of its personnel to fulfill a public records request. See, also, Atty' Gen. Op. 2002-32 (August 27, 2002). If the Court determines that the requested records are public, subject to appropriate redactions, then AOC will charge Civil Rights for Seniors for the redaction and copying of the records pursuant to the enclosed schedules.

Sincerely,

ALICIA G. JOHNSON, ESQ.
